

Kate McRae is a spirited artist from the heart of east Texas. Her unique sound delivers the perfect concoction of country infused with rock, pop, and a little blues. With sultry vocals, playful lyrics, and powerful emotion, her music is sure to keep your attention. This little brunette bombshell truly rocks her country roots.

This young country artist has unparalleled drive and a love of country music that shines through in the confident flare of her live shows. Kate not only strives to be an artist, but also an entertainer for her incredible fans. She has been labelled as a “take no prisoners” performer by Neal McCoy, one of the best entertainers in country music. Kate has had the incredible opportunity to open for acts such as Little Big Town, Jana Kramer, Neal McCoy, and performed on the Trace Adkins and Friends Country Music Cruise alongside Trace Adkins, Love & Theft, Wynonna Judd, Brett Eldridge, and many other phenomenal country artists. She played over 150 shows last year, spanning over the majority of the United States. A brand new music video for her latest single, "Love to Burn", was released this February.

Kate is a prolific songwriter, with a very large catalog of original music. She has been singing, writing, and performing for as long as she can remember. In her heart, she feels like this is what she was born to do. If the early reviews are any indication, 2017 should be a really big year for Kate McRae. This little Texas firecracker is taking the south by storm!
